

EXPLANATORY NOTES

STREET TRADING

1. All streets within the Metropolitan Borough of Walsall have been designated as one of three types:-
  - a) Prohibited Streets –
Where NO trading is allowed;
  - b) Licensed Streets –
In these streets, all traders must obtain a licence from the Council. All trading in licensed streets will take place from a fixed site in the street.
  - c) Consent Streets –
In these streets, all traders must obtain the consent of the Council. In these streets, trading which is of a mobile nature is envisaged.
2. All applicants are asked to decide in which street or streets they wish to trade and then consult the enclosed list of streets to ascertain in which category it lies.
3. The applicant must then decide whether his or her trade is a suitable one, bearing in mind the designation of the street (i.e fixed site for Licensed Street; mobile trade for Consent Streets). All fixed site applications must be accompanied by a site location plan, which must show the exact proposed trading position.
4. The application must be accompanied by the relevant fee:

New Applications: A £50.00 administration fee is payable at application, should the application be successful the £50.00 fee will be deducted from the licence/consent fee.

Renewal Applications: The application should be accompanied by the relevant licence/consent fee.
